

SENEGAL & THE CANARY ISLANDS

Hermanos Thioune

Acoustic Duo

West African roots. An intimate live encounter.

Two performers · 30, 60 or 90 minutes

Led by singer, guitarist and percussionist Khaly Thioune, Hermanos Thioune brings Senegalese musical roots into dialogue with contemporary sounds. The acoustic duo offers a compact format for venues, festivals, cultural centres and universities.

A flexible format for close encounters

The duo can form part of a concert programme, an intimate festival stage or a university and cultural programme. A workshop can be discussed alongside the performance.

Repertoire, final instrumentation, travel arrangements and technical requirements are agreed for each engagement. A dedicated technical advance is coordinated by LFD.

Senegal & Canarias

The project connects Senegal and the Canary Islands through music, rhythm and shared stories. Sama Nene / Arroró brings a Senegalese lullaby into conversation with the traditional Canarian lullaby, revealing the artistic dialogue at the heart of Hermanos Thioune.

Hermanos Thioune

Hermanos Thioune is a Canary Islands based artistic project led by Senegalese musician, composer and choreographer Khaly Thioune. Its work spans concerts, African percussion and dance, cultural mediation and education. The music draws on West African traditions and contemporary influences including afrobeat, reggae, jazz and blues.
